

Dressage & Cross Country Clinic

Saturday, July 13, 2019 Starting time 9 am

Come join us for an informal Combined Training Clinic to see what it's all about.

Paula Smith and George Mierek will spend the morning with an introduction to Dressage – basic principles and riding a simple test. (Safety Helmet, proper footwear for all riders required when mounted, plus a safety vest for the cross country portion.

- How is the ring set up?
- How do I learn a test?
- What is the judge looking for?

You will have an opportunity to ride USEA 2018 Novice Test A for a critique.

After lunch you will go out on the cross country course for a schooling session.

- Why do I walk the course?
- How do I adjust my gait and/or speed for the terrain?
- Why is my approach to the fence important?
- How is a “refusal” determined?

Pre-entry is required. Clinic is free to members, $25 for non-members. Lunch will be provided at a separate fee. If you need a copy of the test, please indicate and we will mail one to you. Please mail your entry by Monday, July 8 with any fees due payable to BHA, mailed to BHA, PO Box 338, Barneveld, NY 13304
